Iconic & Exceptional Wine

Bottle

Petrus 2006 - Bordeaux, France

£4500

One of the world's rarest wines, Petrus has truly become an icon of its time under Christian Moueix. The vineyard of just 11½ hectares is located on a plateau in the highest part of Pomerol, the Merlot vines flourishing in the famous blue clay soils. The vines are planted for no less than 70 years, giving extraordinary concentration within the fruit. The grapes are harvested by hand, only in the afternoons when all dew has evaporated in order not to risk any dilution to this intense concentration. The wines are considered approachable after 10 years in bottle: the 2006 vintage is now drinking exceptionally well.

Hermitage La Chapelle 2009, Paul Jaboulet Aîné - Rhône, France

£390

Returning from the crusades in the 13th century, the knight Gaspard de Sterimberg sought a new life of peace and solitude. He built a chapel overlooking the Rhône valley and lived the remainder of his days as a hermit. Thus the Hermitage appellation can trace its roots. Today, the greatest proponent of Hermitage wine for the past 50 years, Paul Jaboulet Aîné, is still producing small quantities of this famous wine, practising at the highest end of his art. Small quantities of Syrah grapes are harvested by hand before being brought down the steep slopes of the valley, carried by sledge to the winery. Using only traditional methods, spending up to 18 months on new French oak, these wines are very deep in colour, magnificently and hauntingly savoury. The quintessential Syrah.

Grands-Echezeaux Grand Cru 2017, Joseph Drouhin - Burgundy, France

£720

One of the jewels in the crown of the Côte de Nuits, Grands-Echezeaux was awarded its own status as an AOC in 1937. The vines were originally planted by Joseph Drouhin, the estate now being run by his four grandchildren. Their traditional approach, including planting their own nursery, ploughing by horse and exercising minute attention to details in the production, has produced some truly classic wines. This is a wonderfully scented, aromatic Pinot Noir with flavours of sweet ripe cherry, blackcurrant and gamebird. The palate is deep and full, with stunning length and a complex finish. An remarkable marriage of elegance and power from one of the leading Burgundian houses.

Sassicaia 1996, Tenuta San Guido - Tuscany, Italy

£800

Sassicaia is today one of the world's most sought-after wines. Mario Incisa della Rocchetta began planting the Bordeaux varietals Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot in Bolgheri on the Tuscan coast, an area of land that had previously been thought to be unsuitable for growing vines. Within the deeply conservative 1960's Tuscan wine-making world this was a radical, even inflammatory, move. So was born the first Super Tuscan. The name Sassicaia means "place of many stones" and the gravel soils have been compared to those of Medoc. Regarded now as one of the world's greatest Cabernet Sauvignon wines, Sassicaia recently made history by being the first single wine to be granted its own DOC. The wines of Sassicaia combine intense notes of cassis and cedar, with extraordinary power and length.

Opus One 2007, Robert Mondavi - Napa Valley, USA

£990

Opus One began as a collaboration between the great Californian winemaker Robert Mondavi and Baron Phillipe de Rothschild, the first vintage of 1979 being released in 1983. The vines are to be found in dense proliferation around the state of the art winery in Oakville. A Cabernet Sauvignon/Merlot blend on a 95:5 split, the wine is stored on new French oak for 18 months before spending another 18 months in bottle prior to release. Opus One is one of California's most high profile wines. It is also one of its best. The 2007 is regarded by commentators and critics as being one of the greatest wines ever made at Opus One. The flavours of blackcurrant and liquorice shine through, but there is also an undercurrent of subtle smokiness. Running alongside, an opulent texture and dazzling purity mark this out as one of Mondavi's great vintages.

Dominus, 2005 - Napa Valley, USA

£750

The reputation of Christian Moueix as one of the world's leading winemakers is based as much on the wines of Dominus as Petrus. His longstanding relationship with the West Coast began in the 1960s as a student studying abroad. Despite returning home to run the family vineyards in Bordeaux, his affection for Napa was undimmed, returning to take full control over the famous Napanook vineyard in the mid-Nineties. The 2005 is a classic Bordeaux blend of 92% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Cabernet Franc and 3% Petit Verdot. This is the blessed union of French savoir faire and Napa fruit purity. Powerful flavours of earth, blackcurrant, sweet black cherry and incense, with the oak firmly pushed into the background, are the rewards of this great "Terroir" wine which is now hitting its prime.

Cask 23 Cabernet Sauvignon 2016, Stag's Leap - Napa Valley, USA

Magnum £760

Warren Winiarski studied the art of winemaking under Robert Mondavi before striking out alone and setting up Stag's Leap in the heart of Napa in 1972. The master's apprentice immediately established himself as a very serious player, the 1973 vintage taking first place over leading red Bordeaux at a major tasting in 1976. That this took place in Paris was all the more remarkable and was a seismic shock to the hitherto unchallenged supremacy of the leading French Chateaux. Cask 23 is the top wine from Stag's Leap, combining the best of two historic vineyards - Fay and S.L.V. Recognised as one of the most powerful of the past 20 years, the 2016 vintage offers woody spice and toasty oak before giving way to aromatic herb and blackcurrant, all supported by such elegant tannins.

Using the latest world-leading technology, the Coravin wine preservation system allows fine wine bottles to be accessed without removing the cork. Fine wines can be enjoyed by the glass with no air introduced into the bottle, meaning wines can be enjoyed in peak condition for weeks and even months. Our selection showcases the work of some of the very finest producers of our time.
