

CALCOT & SPA

Dining at Calcot

For the time being we've combined the menus across both our restaurants so that we can allow the teams in the kitchens more space to work safely. The menus therefore may look a little different, but still features many of the old favourites. We plan to bring back the old-style menus very soon. The same menu is available in both restaurants.

We will ask you to pour your own wine and water too, but will be on hand if you need anything!
