

WEDDINGS AT FAIRLAWNS

Menus, Price Lists, Terms and Conditions

2019

The following are suggestions to give you a guide and help you towards planning your day with us.

Please remember it is your day and we are flexible and happy to interchange dishes, create new menu ideas and adapt the day and service to your requirements. If we can do it – then we will.

Naturally we appreciate that we might need to cater for special dietary requests and that children may want simpler food prepared. This is never a problem, but the main party dine from a set menu.

We also appreciate that numbers can change right up until the last moment and we are happy to change arrangements if necessary.

Reception drinks, canapés, wedding breakfast and evening buffet prices are based on price per person. Room hire price is based on the total guests.

Best of luck with planning your day – we are available to help at any time.
