Our Story

Our owners Kim and Whit Hanks, founders of Whim Hospitality, Camp Lucy and Tillie’s Restaurant in Dripping Springs, Texas purchased The Old Bell Hotel on 31 March 2021, and it opened in June 2021.

Since the purchase of the hotel in 2021, a lot of changes have been made. Always respecting the building itself, the 34 bedrooms and the Abbey Row Restaurant have redecorated. Now as you eat you are watched over, not only by the Saints, rescued from Vietnam and now a part of Whit’s personal collection, but also by 8000 hand painted stars.

With the first anniversary of the reopening, the Tyger Bar was built and opened to the public. An outdoors-indoors tiki-bar fully heated to accommodate people every day of the year. The name “Tyger” comes from one of the most well-known stories for the locals.

More recently at the end of 2023, we completed our new build, the Garden Room. A fully equipped space, surrounded by glass walls and with a private bar; where weddings, big celebration days, or even local events are taking place already.
