

COMMIS CHEF – Tregenna Castle Resort

Under the general guidance and supervision of the Executive Head Chef, the Commis Chef will assist in the preparation and service of all sections in the Kitchen.

It is anticipated that the position of Commis Chef will be undertaken over five working days out of seven and that the hours of work will be 40 within each working week. A flexible approach to work is required as the Company operates a variety of shift patterns to suit the needs and demands of the business as well as the operational efficiency of the kitchen. Additional hours of work and days of availability may be required during peak times and to cover staff shortage or sickness.

Duties and Responsibilities

- o Prepare on a daily basis food requisition as assigned
- o Ensure that at all times food items for the restaurant are prepared on time and meet both quality and quantity standards
- o Perform duties common to Commis Chef position and other duties as assigned
- o Serving and carving of meats etc. behind the Carvery for guests.
- o Ensure freshness and suitability of products used by the section and that they are stored properly.
- o Control costs by minimising waste, correct storage procedures and exercising strict portion control
- o Ensure that cost control policies and procedures are followed
- o Maintain cleanliness in all assigned areas, including refrigerators and freezers
- o Reports any equipment on the section which needs repair or maintenance
- o Establish and maintain effective employee relations.
- o Inform on a daily basis the Department head all relevant information on operational matters
- o Undertake any relevant staff training deemed appropriate
- o Undertake any other duties deemed appropriate by the Executive Head Chef

The right candidate for the role of Commis Chef will need to be passionate about good food and work to a high standard. We offer a staff meal whilst on duty, free on-site parking, a friendly and professional working environment and a host of discounts across the facilities on offer here at the Resort.