

Private open-air cinema at Soneva Kiri, Koh Kood, Thailand

Movie night will never be the same again after staying at this tropical five-star resort off the coast of Bangkok, where you can book your own private, jungle-enshrouded, open-air cinema, set beside a lagoon. In addition to enjoying your favorite movies under the stars, snack on gourmet popcorn and handcrafted chocolates, and sip on artisanal cocktails (all the while relaxing on gigantic, plush pillows). No wonder it's called Cinema Paradiso. (From $1700 a night)
