2023 Price guide* – correct as of January 2023

Please note: Due to the ongoing situation in Ukraine, the global flower market is quite volatile, so please be aware that at this time I cannot guarantee either flower availability or price. There is a strong likelihood that flower prices may increase significantly in 2023, so though I will honour most of these prices, some may have to be increased.

A few notes:

Prices listed are a guide only, and may be changed as necessary, depending on the number and variety of flowers required.

Flower availability can be seasonal, and prices may fluctuate as a result.

Please note that certain times of the year experience an increase in wholesale flowers prices, eg Valentines, Mother's Day, Easter, Christmas, as a result wedding flower prices are adversely affected at these times of peak demand.

With the ongoing global rise in flower prices, it is not currently possible to offer discounted packages; this will be revised in the future once prices return to normal.

About moss and mushroom

Established in 2013, the Moss and Mushroom floristry studio is located in the heart of county Tipperary on the shores of scenic Lough Derg, just minutes from the M7.

Your wedding day should be one of the most memorable days of your life, and beautiful flowers enhance the mood and look of your big day. Sunflowers or peonies, roses or thistles, whatever you're into, I can help bring your ideas to life, and to suit your budget. I always aim to ensure that couples enjoy the process of choosing the look for their big day, and that their choices truly reflect their taste and personality. If you're having a civil ceremony, I have a selection of beautiful arches, as well as a stunning 2.4 metre moon gate, which makes for stunning photos, and will have your guests talking long after the wedding is over.

Moss and Mushroom couples are free-thinkers, creative and open-minded, and want a wedding that truly reflects them. If that sounds like you, please do get in touch - I'd love to work with you.
