The Red Lion at Whittlesford Bridge

The Red Lion at Whittlesford Bridge is a modern-day coaching inn situated to the south of Cambridge. We provide eating, drinking, lodgings and nuptials in a traditional yet quirky setting.

Parts of our building date back to the 13th Century when Carmelite monks carved the oak beams, some of which are still in place today. We have plenty of nooks and crannies, low ceilings and wonky floors all of which sit comfortably alongside a modern glass-roofed Atrium and picturesque Garden Room. We have 18 individually designed bedrooms, each with their own unique style and free Wi-Fi throughout.

The Red Lion at Whittlesford Bridge is perfect for your day of celebration. Wedding breakfasts, civil ceremonies and evening entertainment can all be held under one roof in a choice of beautifully restored spaces.

We look forward to welcoming you.

Your memories

“Our wedding was arranged with a month’s notice and the staff went above and beyond to give us our special day. I can honestly say that no where would have matched the high standard of service that we received at the Red Lion in Whittlesford Bridge. The choice of food was fantastic, all the guests commented on how nice the food was and also how relaxed the environment was. The staff were on hand 24/7 to cater to the needs of everyone at the reception. An amazing Restaurant, which is run by amazing staff!”

Francesca and Guy October 2013

“As a bride and groom we had the best wedding anyone could ever wish for, at the best possible venue. The Red Lion is a fantastic hotel, the food is exceptional, the staff are fantastic, they are so professional but yet so very very friendly, nothing was too much trouble for any of them. All the staff welcomed us with open arms from the moment we arrived. Our wedding went off without a single hitch. We would recommend the Red Lion hotel for any function.”
