The venue you choose will be where you remember your most special day, and the London Marriott Hotel Grosvenor Square impresses from the second your guests enter from our forecourt, following the red carpet down to your reception suite and enjoying a glass of champagne, to that special moment when they walk into our stunning grand Westminster Ballroom.

The Westminster Ballroom is one of the largest ballrooms in London with both natural daylight & pillar free. Elegantly complemented with three stunning chandeliers, and mood lighting that can be tailored to match your colour scheme.

The Westminster Ballroom can host up to 550 guests, it's a blank canvas, you can dress the room to echo your individual tastes, and design your big day, your way.

For more intimate celebrations, you can also transform the modern Mayfair Suite. Bringing your loved ones closer together, the suite can flexibly accommodate smaller celebrations of up to 120 guests. Situated on the lower ground floor, it's also nicely tucked away from the hustle and bustle of Mayfair.

"Nothing is too much trouble and she took away any worry in the run up to the event by being on the ball and ensuring everything was in place ready for us."
