Riddle's Court would like to offer a huge congratulations on your engagement! Finding the perfect venue is where the fun really starts and we are thrilled you have considered us.

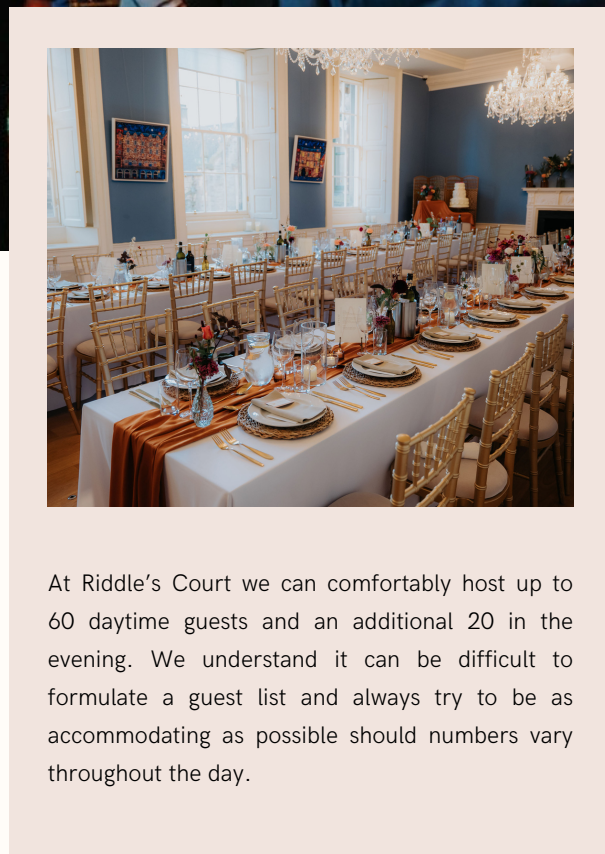

A Love Story to Remember

About Us

Riddle's Court is a picturesque Category A-listed merchant's tenement situated on Edinburgh's Royal Mile. Each room reveals a different chapter of its 500-year history, from a painted ceiling decorated for a royal banquet to one created for students to dine under.

It is a building as beautiful as it is intriguing and one whose story is intimately connected with that of Edinburgh Old Town. When you book your wedding at Riddle's Court, all the profit goes back into our charitable mission of preserving, restoring and renovating beautiful historic buildings.

At Riddle's Court we can comfortably host up to 60 daytime guests and an additional 20 in the evening. We understand it can be difficult to formulate a guest list and always try to be as accommodating as possible should numbers vary throughout the day.
