UCD CONFERENCE AND EVENTS

Weddings at UCD

Firstly, congratulations on your forthcoming wedding celebration and we are delighted you are considering UCD as the location to host your special day.

The UCD University Club is a unique setting in the heart of the UCD campus where we aim to make the planning of your wedding as seamless as possible.

Should you wish the ceremony to take place in UCD we are delighted to confirm that we are fully approved as a venue and offer options in Ardmore House, on campus or in the UCD University Club. With floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the lake, the UCD University Club is a beautiful venue for your wedding reception. Our experienced and dedicated team will support you throughout the essential planning stages and ensure that your wedding day is everything you dream of and more. The catering team will create a sustainable dining experience for you and uses local seasonal ingredients; the dishes will leave a lasting impression on your guests.

We would be delighted to meet with you and show you the facilities here at UCD and look forward to hearing from you.
