Advantages of Midweek Weddings

Midweek weddings are becoming more popular with couples on a smaller budget. While Saturdays may still be the most popular day of the week to get married (closely followed by Fridays and Sundays), more and more couples are considering weddings midweek and reaping the benefits.

Maximise your Value

Midweek, the majority of suppliers namely, photographers, cake makers, entertainers, wedding cars to name a few are much more likely to negotiate in order to reach a price that suits your budget. Saving on these services can really mount up, choosing this option is a great way to save money without having to sacrifice the quality of your wedding and allowing you that extra special honeymoon.

Your Guests

Gives you extra time to spend with your family and friends. With weekend weddings, your guests will be rushing home on the Sunday in order to get back to work or school on the Monday. By planning a midweek wedding in advance may enable your guests to take a few more days off work and make a long weekend or midweek break at your wedding destination.

Save the Date

Wedding planning is much easier as you will be able to have a better chance to reserve the date of your choice with the church, suppliers etc. So avoiding the endless calls to the various suppliers and only to hear 'sorry we are booked for that day'.

Pre-Wedding Pampering

Take the opportunity and check in the night before; allowing you the time to relax and prepare in stress-free surroundings the night before the big day. Whether it's a luxurious afternoon tea with Prosecco or a stylish dinner with family and friends we have it covered.

For a more private or intimate affair, why not take advantage of our Marco Pierre White private dine before retiring to your room.
