Wedding Etiquette & Tradition

The Top Table

The Top Table seating arrangement, facing your guests is traditionally from left to right as below.

Chief Bridesmaid	Groom's Father	Bride's Mother	Groom	Bride	Bride's Father	Groom's Mother	Best Man
---------------------	-------------------	-------------------	-------	-------	-------------------	-------------------	-------------

The Speeches

The first toast is made by the Bride's father, on behalf of the Bride's parents and is usually a light-hearted collection of family memories. It also includes the toast to the Bride & Groom.

The Groom responds to this toast on behalf of the happy couple, together with making a second toast to the Bridesmaids. The Groom's speech includes giving thanks to all guests and those involved with the Wedding and giving gifts where appropriate.

The Best Man responds to the Groom's speech on behalf of the Bridesmaids and reads messages from any guests unable to attend the wedding. He traditionally tells stories of his friendship with the Groom and observations of the happy couple together.

The First Dance

The Bride & Groom take to the dance floor for their first dance as Man and Wife. This would traditionally begin the party atmosphere of the evening reception.
