

fashion is fun « Here's What Some of Our Favorite Designers Are Going As For Halloween

« PREVIOUS

3 of 14

NEXT »

"Both being foreigners living in New York City and, although being here for a while, we're still always getting lost, so we're dressing up to be the 'ultimate tourists.' We'll head to Beacon's Closet in Brooklyn and look for a mis-match of clothes from floral shirts to over-sized shorts, flip-flops with Birkenstocks. We'll have our big cameras and big map as accessories for the night!" —Jade Harwood and Aurelie Popper of Wool & the Gang