

OLDIES, GOLDIES Carpets tell stories. Tai Ping's new Vestige collection is a fascinating blend of height and depth – and it has patina. Handmade tufting quality in wool and silk. Oracle model approx. € 809/m².

Back to the needles Don't buy it, make it yourself! Wool and the Gang has knitting kits for the modern woman. Don't know how? Where there's wool, there's a way. From € 50.

Reincarnation

The wolf is re-born as a lady and its sheep's clothing is a lambskin coat (€ 6,995). Plus, a stretch satin dress (€ 2,995) and a python clutch (€ 2,750). Who's the Creator? Burberry!

Holy Wool!

Knitting kits, wool on the floor and decorating monuments – Come what may, this winter's gonna be wooly and warm!

Change step Slouch is most definitely out. This winter the heels are high on Hermès sandalettes – in suede with ankle-warming woodchuck fur. Approx. € 930.

Hot stuff Monuments and railings get chilly too – says the Knitting Crew. So they decided to dress them up in wooly knitwear. Admire the results in the book Urban Knits (Prestel), out this spring. Approx. € 15.

Wristwarmers The idea came from designer Elizabeth Yarborough: You change your clothes to suit the weather, why not your jewelry as well? Cashmere bracelet, from € 92.

WINTER REFUGE

Wrap up in this blanket when Jack Frost comes to town and you will find yourself dreaming of the warm southern sun. 100% cashmere, coral tone. Hermès, from € 4,500.

For rolling They don't bite, they only want to cuddle. Nanuk sit-on balls from Bleu Nature; in genuine fur approx. € 1,390, artificial fur, approx. € 1,075.

