Knitting for summer with Wool and the Gang

Wool and the Gang has been making knitting ready-to-use since 2007. And the brand that packages together all the tools you need to make pieces of clothing you'll actually want to wear once you finish knitting them, presents their s/s '11 collection. Photographed by Martin Bruno (Vanessa Bruno's brother), the collection features loose crop tops and a "sexy back" sweater. Each Wool and the Gang kit comes equipped with their signature patches, knitting needles and Peruvian cotton wool.
