'TIS the SEASON to Celebrate

20 years

of HOLIDAY JOY

FOR THE CRAFT FANATIC

1. This pincushion ring ($5.50, etsy.com/shop/ellaswardrobe) is the best kind of bauble for someone who sews. 2. The sweet, oversize seagull tote ($55, waynepate.com) is just the thing for knitting supplies. 3. Give tools of the trade in sustainable bamboo: a tracing wheel, tailor's awls, and a seam ripper (from $7.50 each, clover-usa.com). 4. SPECIAL OFFER Upload your family photos to bring the illustrations in the Billboard custom calendar ($44, enter MARTHAI0 at minted.com for 10% discount) to life. 5. This handmade, reversible bow tie ($62, pierreponthicks.com) takes a classic to a new level. 6. Pom-pom makers ($31 for 4, clover-usa.com) can be used to embellish anything—the pom-sibilities are endless. 7. The Jane collar kit ($89, usa.woolandthegang.com) comes with everything you'll need to knit a chic shrug. 8. A card and an ornament in one, the Lovi ball (from $14.50, merchant4.com) arrives flat, to be put together by the recipient. 9. MARTHA'S PICK Fill this toolbox ($66, alicesupplyco.com) with Martha Stewart supplies (marthastewart.com/crafts). 10. FOR KIDS Handmade mohair bears (from $165, etsy.com/shop/foxandowl) will find happy homes with older kids or collectors. 11. Modern whimsy meets Colonial-era craftiness in the bird needlepoint sampler ($76, purlsoho.com).
