Wool And The Gang's Event Is The Coolest Thing In Yarn

By Laura Jean Story

Get a little tied up in your casual knitting project this season? Have no idea how to do it at all? You're in luck: The hand-knitting pros of Wool And The Gang have upped the chic-factor on looping and purling by hosting a Knit Night, Thursday, November 3. And, while Wool And The Gang has mastered the craft with their ultra-lush sweaters, don't be intimidated— guests of all experience levels can bring their own projects for assistance. For knitting newbies, pick up a Wool And The Gang Knitting Kit to learn how to make your own winter wardrobe and find the right moves for putting a fashionable edge on the craft. Or, (bonus!) for us seriously lazy folk, the, well, gang is offering 10% off all their fall collection. Trust us, there's nothing grandma-sque about these amazing staple sweaters.

When: Thursday, November 3, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Where: Wool And The Gang, 98 Thompson Street (between Spring and Prince streets); 212-966-9266.

To attend, just R.S.V.P here.
