

A range of what our amazing volunteers do and why they do it.....

Our Beer Festival is in early July and the team has been working hard since the last one so they deserve a big thank you from us all. We're all committed to preserving and growing our pubs so I'd like to thank you for your commitment also. We need each other.

Mike, Herefordshire

At the Belper Goes Green eco-festival, our hard-working volunteers served customers in the humidity & heat last weekend (1-2 June). In total 60 real ales completely sold out on the first day requiring further re-stocking for Day 2.

Nora, Amber Valley CAMRA

In June, 40+ CAMRA members gathered in a pub basement to plan the world's best beer festival (Great British Beer Festival). We're the Managers, Deputies and Permanents who help make the Festival run. Many of us are on site for 12+ days setting up the festival, and then dismantling it. We also attend a variety of meetings and working weekends in the CAMRA Warehouse where all the equipment necessary to run the festival is built, modified, stored and repaired.

Graham, Portsmouth

This will be my 22nd year of helping at Peterborough beer festival and also in my hometown of Nottingham; it will also be my 7th year helping at York beer festival. I'm also a Brewery Liaison Officer and as a branch committee member, I help by surveying for our Mild Trail, Stout & Porter Stroll and IPA Hop. I also deliver around 200 of our 'Nottingham Drinkers' magazine. I try and do my bit.

Colin, Nottingham CAMRA

Having been an active member of my branch for many years, an opportunity arose to take part in CAMRA's Books Committee. I've enjoyed being involved at this level and learning more about the Campaign as a whole.

Sarah

Why Books Committee? Because what could be better than books and beer?

Tony, Stourbridge

"I get a massive sense of belonging and feel very proud and honoured to be part of the CAMRA 'family'. I'm able to work alongside like-minded people to achieve a common aim – and the friendships I've made will last a lifetime"

A range of what our amazing volunteers do and why they do it.....

CAMRA make it really easy to start volunteering, with heaps of resources and lots of support from existing committee members.

Tom, Somerset

On a personal level, volunteering has had a huge impact on me – as I met my wife at Cambridge beer festival (2009), and we now have a baby - so I've a lot to be thankful to CAMRA for!

Mark, Watford

It's a really friendly, welcoming atmosphere and I cannot put into words how much I enjoy stewarding at festivals. It's now a part of who I am and the benefits are so much better than I could have hoped for. Try it for yourself and see!

Flick, Grantham
