Roccia di Roma is a glazed color body porcelain pressed tile made in the USA. It receives its design inspiration from the Classic Roman Travertine marble. It is a cross-cut design pattern, which lends itself to both classic and contemporary spaces. Roccia di Roma comes in three colors, along with a 2x2 mosaic, a 2x5 picket mosaic, and a 3x12 bullnose. There are 45 design faces and it exceeds the ADA slip resistance compliance with a DCOF rating that is >0.42.
