

Donna is campaigning to be selected as the Police & Crime Commissioner for Hampshire & IOW.

It's Donna's background in banking and local government that led her to apply for one of these key new roles.

Donna is a serving member of the judiciary, sitting as a Magistrate in Hampshire. When Donna was appointed as a Magistrate over 6 years ago she was the youngest in England and Wales.

Donna was born and educated in Portsmouth. As a teenager she played hockey for Hampshire and was a member of the 1st XI Havant U18s team. She took three A-levels at Havant College before being offered a place at Cardiff University.

Donna is married and has two sons, Benjamin and Harry. Donna is a fully qualified investment manager.